

Exhibition spaces:

Matter – From Actual Presence to Virtual Representation

The images depicting the exhibition spaces are functional, showing the scale and concept of each space. The spaces will be constructed of plywood and exact measurements and images of the final constructions will be published in January 2021.

